

When fed at the recommended levels,
NutriVantage® can:

- Promote a healthy gut environment
- Help balance gut micro-flora
- Help combat stress (showing & transport)
- Provide immune system support
- Aid nutrient availability and digestion

What makes NutriVantage® work?

The proprietary natural chelating agents, along with hydrolyzed brewers dried yeast, provide a source of prebiotics which are also beneficial to the animal. For example, mannan oligosaccharide (MOS), a yeast cell wall component possessing prebiotic activity, is recognized as promoting intestinal health and providing immune system support. Furthermore, the natural proprietary chelating agents have been shown and referenced in patents and scientific literature to reduce inflammation and arthritic conditions in laboratory animals. Supplemental vitamin E acts as an antioxidant which prevents a form of oxygen (commonly referred to as free radicals) from harming body tissue.

All Kent Swine Show Feeds contain
NutriVantage® technology.
